Bader Court, Wensleysdale Terrace, Blyth, Northumberland NE24 3EY

Bader Court is a modern complex of one bedroom flats offering independent living for people over the age of 55 and is located close to Blyth Centre.

Details

Bader Court is a modern complex that is situated in a residential area near Ridley Park and approx 1 mile out of Blyth town centre and within easy reach of the beach. The scheme benefits from being on the main bus route to Blyth, Whitley Bay and Newcastle, providing access to the local amenities, there is a mini supermarket 200 yards away that is convenient for daily papers and a good range of groceries and a larger supermarket in Blyth town centre.

Bader Court is a friendly and busy scheme with weekly activities including an art group, knit and natter, coffee morning, lunch club and bingo. In the summer months trips are arranged as far afield as Whitby, Castle Howard and the Lake District. There is also a monthly church service held in the communal lounge. The communal gardens with their flower borders, tubs and hanging baskets are a lovely place to relax.

All properties are fully self contained, with their own lounge, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. The Independent Living Coordinator is on site Monday to Friday, and there is a 24 hour alarm system which can be activated in an emergency.

This scheme consists of:

57 x 1 bedroom flats - Rent and service charge from £71.78 to £109.41 per week

The above rent and service charge is a guide and dependent on property type. These charges will be fully explained to you during sign up.

A full list of services included in the service charge can be accessed below:
